70 Park Avenue, a boutique Kimpton Hotel in the heart of New York City’s Midtown Manhattan, envelopes guests with lively style and warm hospitality.

The hotel’s sought-after Park Avenue location inspired the recent guest room redesign. With its strong contrasts of chocolate brown and soft off-white colors, the rooms’ eclectic mix of classic and contemporary elements provides the perfect pied-a-terre for the young-at-heart nomad.
